

Free one hour workshops for students (and their families)
applying to college

Creative Students and the College Application Process: What Families Need to Know

ARTriculate is the only college consulting service in the DC metro area that specializes in helping creative students find the best fit college and apply. Our creative students include visual artists, performing artists, film students, digital media students, musicians, dancers, and STEM students who have creative interests that will inform their college choices. Luminare Financial Planning specializes in financial planning for families with college-bound students. We tell you everything you need to know about:

- Great careers for creatives in visual arts, performing arts and digital media
- How to find your “best fit” colleges
- The difference between a BFA and a BA, a College of Art and Design/Conservatory and a Traditional Liberal Arts College/University
- Timelines for activities during all four high school years and summers
- Costs of college and the different terms you’ll hear (FAFSA, 529 Plans, Expected Family Contribution (EFC), Net Price Calculator (NPC), etc.)
- Strategies for saving for college
- Determining your EFC (Expected Family Contribution)
- Knowing the difference between the net cost vs the advertised cost
- Differing types of financial aid
- How to plan ahead financially no matter where you are now
- How working with an experienced college advisor and financial planner reduces stress and organizes the process

Sunday 9/16/18 @ 2:00 pm

RSVP

<https://www.facebook.com/events/895134464028878/>

GLEN ECHO PARK
Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture

Glen Echo Park, Arcade Room 302
7300 MacArthur Blvd., Glen Echo, MD
www.GlenEchoPark.org

For Questions: Florence@ARTriculate.com 301-529-5980 www.ARTriculate.com