About the Job

The Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture seeks a Box Office Manager who is an expert in creating customer satisfaction and has strong knowledge of ticketing systems. Reporting to the Chief Operating Officer, this newly created position will be the driving force of our recently launched centralized box office for Glen Echo Park. The Box Office Manager will be responsible for expanding and overseeing all central box office functions and managing a team of part-time box office staff to ensure excellent customer service. The Box Office Manager will supervise sales of tickets to puppetry performances, social dances, concerts, carousel rides, and other park activities to groups as well as support facility rentals. This position will be a tech-savvy master of the CRM/ticketing system and provide sales reports and data analysis to partners and senior staff. This role is the perfect opportunity for someone who excels at a blend of technical system management, team leadership, and visitor interaction. With room for growth, a successful Box Office Manager will be an individual who can creatively expand ticket sales to reach new groups and customers while effectively providing quality customer service through their team management skills.

About Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture and Glen Echo Park

The Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture (Partnership) is the nonprofit manager of historic Glen Echo Park (the Park), a unique multidisciplinary arts and culture center located in Montgomery County, MD. Glen Echo Park is home to a community of artists and is jointly managed through an agreement between the National Park Service, Montgomery County Government, and the Partnership. Our mission is to present vibrant artistic, cultural and educational offerings at Glen Echo Park and promote the Park as a unique destination for our region's diverse population. We strive to inspire creativity and offer shared artistic experiences in a welcoming historic and natural setting within a National Park. The Partnership works alongside resident and non-resident artists and organizations to curate a rich calendar of events, classes and activities for the Park's 300,000 annual visitors by directly and jointly presenting public programs and providing centralized marketing, administration, and other services. The Partnership is led by a dedicated Board of Directors and staffed by a passionate team of employees.
