Fall Frolic at Glen Echo Park

WHAT:

The Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture presents Fall Frolic, an annual Halloween-themed family event that is open to visitors of all ages.

Join us for some FREE Halloween fun! Activities include Halloween arts & crafts, a festive fall photo-op, a costume contest, and Trick-or-Treating at our resident art studios and galleries. We focus on the arts-y & crafts-y more than the scary, but we love to see all the costumes – even the scary ones! Plenty of free parking!

Plus, we'll have some Halloween music in the Cuddle Up Pavilion provided by our very own Washington Conservatory of Music (WCM)'s Suzuki students and Washington Conservatory Orchestra!

WHO:

Presented by the Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture

WHEN:

Saturday, October 31, 2026, 1pm – 4pm

WHERE:

Glen Echo Park
7300 MacArthur Boulevard, Glen Echo, Maryland

ABOUT THE GLEN ECHO PARK PARTNERSHIP FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

The Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture, a non-profit organization, manages the arts programs and historic buildings Glen Echo Park, a vibrant arts and cultural center that is part of the National Park Service. The Park offers classes and camps in visual and performing arts, art exhibitions, children's theater performances, environmental education, special events and festivals, and a lively social dance program. Glen Echo Park is located at 7300 MacArthur Blvd. in Glen Echo, Maryland, six miles northwest of Georgetown along the scenic Potomac River palisades.

The Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture is supported in part by the Maryland State Arts Council (msac.org) and also by funding from the Montgomery County government and the Arts and Humanities Council of Montgomery County (creativemoco.com). All programs are produced in cooperation with the National Park Service and Montgomery County, Maryland.
