Mimi Betz

Painting

Mimi Betz is a local DC area artist whose work includes local scenes, flowers, still lifes, and pet portraits. Mimi loves to paint en plein air. She may often be found painting at the edge of a field of sunflowers, or along the C&O canal, or painting the Potomac River from the GW Parkway. In 2004 when Mimi retired from a 39 year career with the Federal Government she began taking art classes at the Yellow Barn Studio in Glen Echo, MD. She also took workshops from plein air artists Bethanne Kinsella Cople, Sara Linda Poly and Gavin Brooks through the South Street Art Gallery in Easton, MD. She studied at Montgomery College taking both studio and plein air classes with Ed Ahlstrom. Recently she has taken classes with Gonzalo Ruiz Navarro through the Yellow Barn Studio. She is currently studying with Glen Kessler at Compass Atelier in Rockville.
